REDS DEFEAT THE WHITE SOX AT CINCINNATI

FIRST MOVE IS MADE TO END ENGLISH STRIKE

BIG CROWD SEES OPENING CONTEST

Redland Park Swamped With Humanity
as Cincinnati Battles For World Title for First Time in Fifty Years

Chicago 010000000-- 1 5 1

Cincinnati 10050021x-- 9 14 1

CINCINNATI, Oct. 1.—The Cincinnati Reds got a long lead in the battle for the championship of the world here today when they won the opening game from the Chicago White Sox by the score of 9 to 1. Cicotte, veteran twirler, on whom Kid Gleason placed his faith in the initial series, was batted from the box in the fourth inning. Wilkerson, who succeeded him, went the same route, and was succeeded by Lowdermilk. Reuther, on the hill for the Reds, not only held the opposing batsmen at his mercy, but started with the stick. Out of four times up he secured two triples, a single and a pass—a batting record for the day of an even 1,000. But two errors were rung up, one of these going to the credit of Buck Weaver.

TREMENDOUS CROWDS ASSEMBLED AT GATES; MAD RUSH FOR SEATS

By JACK VEIOCK.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 1.—Trembling with pent-up baseball enthusiasm that has been seeking an outlet for the last fifty years, Cincinnati nervously awaits the opening of the 1919 world's series here today between the Reds and the White Sox.

Baseball is the one topic; nothing else matters. For weeks past this hustling old Ohio River town has been slowly working itself into a frenzy of excitement over Pat Moran and his National League champions. For years—ever since 1869 to be exact—Cincinnati fans have been hoping and praying for a pennant winner. Today their dreams are realized, and Cincinnati will "sit down" to enjoy its first world's series, backing Moran and his gallant Reds with heart, soul, currency and the family plate.

Long before the first gray streaks of dawn broke over the skyline Cincinnati was astir. At Redland Field, where the Moransmen will grapple with the invading Sox in the first game of the series, a long line of loyal rooters stood patiently awaiting the opening of the gates, prepared to fight to the last ditch for the best reserved seats. Even those fans—more than twenty thousand in all—who are in possession of coveted "ducks" entitling them to seats in the reserved sections were up bright and early, preparing to make their way to the scene of the conflict, determined to miss no part of it.

Odds Are On Reds

Hotels that have been bulging with patrons for days were filled from roof to cellar last night, and incoming trains from all directions began pouring their cargoes of rabid Ohioans into the city this morning. Thousands of fans will be disappointed. But they were warned. The Cincinnati club has erected temporary stands to accommodate several thousand fans for whom there was originally no place in Redland Field. Every available inch of space that could be used for seating capacity has been pressed into service, and when the Reds and Sox line up for battle they will find themselves surrounded by a closely packed and frenzied mob of rooters—the strongest-jungled rooters in the National League.

There is more excitement here today than Cincinnati has ever dreamed of before. No event imaginable could have stirred up this old town to such a whirlwind of interest. In short, "Cincy" is a boiling cauldron of baseball babble, and if you listen you can hear nothing but arguments in favor of the Reds. The fans are backing Moran's team, too. Odds ranging from 7 to 5 to 6 to 5 have been given. White Sox rooters who came here to "get down" on the Chicago team have found no dearth of money. The fact that the series gets under way here in the first two games has increased the confidence of local bugs in their team, and if Moran's men win today's game Cincinnati will probably offer any kind of odds to get more money down.

Sox Keep Under Cover

The White Sox stuck closely to their hotel this morning. They are sober and confident. Experience in the 1917 world's series, in which most of the present Sox took part, swept away much of the excitement and glamor for them today. They are, admittedly, one of the greatest teams of "money players" that ever went into a series and they will trot on the field this afternoon determined to get the jump on their rivals.

Manager Gleason, confident but saying little, prepared to lead his players to Redland Field shortly before noon. Gleason believes he has a team that can settle the issue with the Reds inside of seven games. The stretching of the series to nine games, he points out, is as fair to one team as the other.

Manager Moran and his Redlegs had to keep under cover to hide away from thousands of rabid fans who have been in the habit of surrounding them wherever they have appeared for several weeks. The Reds were ordered to be on hand at the ball park not later than 11 o'clock.

Reds Supreme Confident.

The players of Moran's team are confident, too. They feel that they demonstrated their class by beating out the Giants this season, even though the New York club was the only one that kept them fighting to grab the pennant. They are conceding nothing to Chicago. Like the thousands of Cincinnati fans who are backing them, the Reds have supreme confidence in their pitching staff. They feel that Sallee, Reuther and Eller will turn the Sox sluggers back toward the bench, and they—the slugging infielders, catchers and gardeners of the Reds—will see about the wonderful pitching ability of Cicotte and Wilkerson, and attend to it.

Although they have had but two days in which to rest up for the opening struggle, the White Sox were reported to be in the proverbial "pink" and ready for the battle to start. The Sox have already practiced on Redland Field and have a line on the peculiarities of the park, which was of course strange to them until Monday.

Steel Strike Begins to Crack in the Radical Western District.

EMPLOYEES CLAIM THEY WILL WIN OUT YET

Judge Elbert Gary Appears Before Senate Committee Today.

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Whether organized labor shall control industry is the "moral issue" in the steel strike, Judge Gary, chief executive of the U. S. Steel corporation, declared this afternoon before the senate investigating committee.

"We stand firmly upon the proposition that industry must proceed without interference except from the employer, the employee or the government," said Judge Gary. "The steel strike is a struggle whether organized labor can enforce the closed shop upon industry." Judge Gary asserted. "The U. S. Steel corporation will refuse to contract with unions, and will not confer with labor leaders," the witness declared. He added: "that the corporations should have complaints of workers, irrespective of whether they are union members."

CLAIMS MEN WELL PAID

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Charges made that steel workers had been ill-treated and underpaid were declared to be "without a vestige of truth and based on misinformation and absolutely without foundation," by Judge Gary, witness today before the senate committee probing the steel strike. "There is no basis in industry in this country or in the world which has paid larger wages to its employees than the U. S. Steel corporation nor has treated their employees with greater consideration," Gary said.

(International News Service.)

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—A perceptible gain of ground in the steel strike situation by the mills was noted today in the Chicago district. Mills in Gary, Ind., South Chicago, Indiana Harbor and other steel centers in the Calumet region report their force of employees daily increasing. Strike leaders, while admitting a few defections from their ranks, declare that they will win in the end. At Gary more than 4,000 of the 8,000 employees are reported at work. The American Steel & Tin Plate company reported a working force of 3,200 out of 5,000. Similar gains in the number of men at work are reported from other mills in the district.

INCREASED STREET CAR FARES AGREED ON AT CONFERENCE WITH CITY OFFICIALS

Committees From the Two Councils Meet With Receiver A. A. Hardage.

BOOKS OF HUNDRED WILL SELL FOR $6.00

The New Rates Will Be Effective Here For But One Year.

A. A. Hardage, receiver for the North Alabama Traction company, yesterday afternoon was told that his request for increased street car fares in Albany-Decatur will meet with the approval of the city councils, at a conference held in the office of City Attorney S. A. Lynne, of Decatur.

The conference was attended by Mr. Hardage, Mr. Weakley, former head of the company, and committees representing the councils of Albany and Decatur. The committee for Albany was composed of Aldermen Sivey, Patterson and Chensult and the one from Decatur of Mayor Nelson and Aldermen Bailey and Dix. The committees agreed that the new rates would be effective for only one year, at the end of which a new schedule will be drawn, depending on conditions existing at that time.

The rates as agreed upon yesterday will be:

7c for ordinary passage.
Books of 100 for $6.00.
Books of 4 for 25c.

School children on school days 5c. Judge Weakley explained to the aldermen the condition of the company now, as set forth in the written request filed with the councils by Receiver Hardage and showing the company is losing money.

Mr. Weakley stated that it would be impossible for the company to grant the request of the men for increased wages if the fare was not made higher. The contract with the men expired on September 30, but they are working pending the new scale which is expected to go into effect in a short time.

SHIPPING STRIKE IS CALLED OFF FOR THE PRESENT

(International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The nationwide strike of shipyard workers, set for today, has been averted, at least temporarily. A conference yesterday between representatives of the 15 international unions of the shipyards and officials of the navy department and the emergency fleet corporation of the shipping board resulted in an agreement by the government to remove the restrictions against granting the shipyard workers a working week of less than 48 hours, and secondly the government representatives urged that wage demands of the ship workers be held in abeyance until after President Wilson's industrial conference. James O'Connell, president of the Metal Trades department of the American Federation of Labor, said today that he thought the workers would abide by the government's wishes.

EDMUNDSONS ARE BUILDING FIVE-MILE BOULEVARD FROM ALBANY TO RIVER

New Roadway Will Be One of Unusual Beauty and Will Attract Motorists

EDMUNDSON ARE ... some few hundred yards, beginning at its intersection with the pike. The grading to the river will not be completed until the fall crops are off the land, but grading is also in progress on a parallel road that will be an extension of Wilson street. The two roads will connect within the city limits. The first will be an extension of Eighth Avenue. The cost of building the two roads will exceed $5,000, the total expense being borne by Mr. and Mrs. Edmundson.

The handsome colonial home of the Edmundsons will not be directly on the new thoroughfare, but will be connected with it by two good pikes, one of which will be used as a wagon road. The hedge is being trimmed to a daisy line, and has been cindered to give a view of the residence.

MOB SPIRIT PASSES AT MONTGOMERY; BOY REPORTED AS MURDERED FOUND

Alabama Capital Is Quiet Again After Two Days of Turbulence.

SPECIAL POLICE ARE PATROLLING STREETS

All Last Night Lights Burned in Residences and Populace Anxious.

(International News Service.)

MONTGOMERY, Oct. 1.—To all outward appearances the mob spirit has died down here, and unless some unforeseen incident should take place it is not believed that there will be any renewal of the lynchings which have marked the last two days, following a number of criminal assaults upon white women by negro men.

When the sun went down last night darkness ushered in a grim silence, in marked contrast with the previous night, when there was desultory looting. Rumors of bloody fights, growing some reports of the finding of a boy's body and many other reports tended to fan the flame of race hatred to a point of actual warfare.

The streets of this city were cleared of all negroes last night, and every business place in the negro section was closed. At present four negroes are known to have been killed, and one policeman was shot to death by a negro.

Sidney Roton, the 11-year old white boy whose disappearance caused wild excitement, was located at a late hour last night in Atlanta. It was a well known fact early in the night that a definite plan of action had been decided upon, should it develop that the boy had been murdered, and for this reason a large portion of the city was awake and news of his discovery spread. Almost every residence kept all lights burning.

Some of the foremost radical negroes have been run out of the city, and hundreds of negroes left voluntarily. The entire city is being patrolled by special police to preserve order.

15,000 MOTOR LORRIES ARE RUSHING FOOD TO THE HUNGRY BRITAINS

(International News Service.)

LONDON, Oct. 1.—With both sides standing firm there was no sign of a decisive break in the national railway strike today. Government officials claim that railway traffic is improving steadily, and that the number of trains leaving out is increasing. The vigorous action taken in forming a motor lorry transport system, with 15,000 cars, for distribution of provisions, is staying off any danger of suffering for want of food. Troops are being used in increasing numbers. Heavy bodies of soldiers were stationed at strategic points along all the railway lines in Scotland.

(International News Service.)

LONDON, Oct. 1.—The first definite step towards a settlement of the national railway strike was taken this afternoon when it was decided at a labor conference to send a deputation of eleven men to call upon Lloyd George. The delegates were instructed to obtain a pronouncement from the government on wage revision, and to report to the labor conference at 5 o'clock. Many unions, which are involved in the rail strike, or may be involved, are represented.

RAINEY IS VICTOR IN SEVENTH BY MAJORITY 770

(International News Service.)

GADSDEN, Oct. 1.—L. B. Rainey, democrat of Gadsden, has been elected to congress over C. B. Kennamar, republican, and thereby endorsement has been given by the Seventh district to the league of nations, which has been one of the main issues of the campaigns. Rainey's majority will be about 770 in the district. Etowah, his home county, nominated him and then elected him. Kennamar carried five counties, with the following majorities: Blunt, 25; Cullman, 240; DeKalb, 125; Marshall, 25; St. Clair, 186; Rainey's majority in Etowah is 1057, and in Cherokee 310. The figures are based on practically complete returns.

THE UNDERPLAYING OF THE "COMMON HERD"

(Birmingham Ledger.)
But for man's fear of man the human race would make swifter progress toward those goals which it aspires to reach. This fear translates itself in slavish submission to the passions and prejudices of the race as a modus operandi for the advancement of the interests of leaders. The leaders are the more craven, because they are better informed and know the character of the means they use to attain power and influence.

For example, here comes Gen. Obregon in Mexico and tells his constituents this:

"Whatever the excuse for launching armed intervention against Mexico and whatever the pledges shall be, I shall be ready to take the field against the armed forces."

He is a candidate for president of the Mexican republic. He has traveled in America. He knows that his taking the field against America in case of our intervention would not amount to a row of beans. He knows that the best way to keep us out of Mexico is to promote a good feeling toward Americans among his own people. He knows more depends on our attitude toward Mexico than all other things combined. Yet he, a leader of his people, throws this bragadocio dust into their eyes simply and solely that he may receive their votes for the presidency.

Blessed that day in the march of progress when education is so diffused that leaders will not dare appeal to the passions and prejudices of the race, but will be forced, by reason of the general intelligence, to play up to rather than below the crowd.

That time is on the way. The Alabamian who runs for congress now wears the same clothes in the rural districts as he does in the city. He has ceased sitting on a rotten log, chewing tobacco with some rural beat leader. He is not so liberal with such figures of speech as the "horny-handed sons of toil," the "one-gallused boys," the "hill-billies" and the like. He has changed his tactics because the crowd has changed.

The error of it all is that no man has ever achieved greatness through that method. Neither Attila, nor Napoleon, nor Caesar, nor Bismarck, nor Peter the Great truckled to the crowd's pettiness. They played the big underlying motives.

The passion and prejudice of the hour carry a Danton and a Marat to momentary headship of a nation and place a scarlet woman at the bowship of the ship of revolution in the making; but the truly great, those who accomplish things, work on the heart and the soul and the mental viscera of mankind.

We have our Reed in America, and Mexico has its Obregon. Italy has its madcap poet. Such men enjoy the limelight for a period, but they underplay the real in mankind, and mankind resents being played on and eventually spews them out for those who more correctly interpret and regard with greater respect that part in us all which commands respect.

NATIONAL GUARD AND POLITICS DON'T MIX

When mobs ran amuck in Montgomery yesterday, when the danger of a real race riot seemed imminent, when passion and feeling were in the ascendency, is it quite possible that Governor Kilby reflected seriously on his failure to provide the state with military protection through the organization of a national guard. Under conditions like these it would have been quite easy for some hot-tempered citizen to have led a drive against the negroes of the state capital that would have cost the lives of many innocent persons and that would have done much to have besmirched the fair name of Alabama. Such a catastrophe would have been out of the question if the state boasted only a few well-organized and well-equipped militia companies.

Why is Alabama without an adequate national guard? There is but one answer to the now pertinent query. And that answer is politics. It is still vividly recorded that back in the palmy days of the Kilby administration, the governor put the rollers under Adjutant General Vincent Evans, who he had appointed to the office by Governor Henderson, giving as his excuse that Evans was "too young." His youth, however, had not discouraged the War Department, by which he was commissioned a brigadier general, nor had it prevented a display of energy and ability for organization that his successor has not shown. Gen. Evans had already recruited a number of companies, including one in Albany-Decatur, and within a month's time would have had a regiment of volunteers at the service of the commonwealth. He was young, but he was also competent.

To recall recent history, however, is a waste of words. What Alabama demands is quick action by the military department. The state should not be left at the mercy of the excitement.

ARTICLE OF NATIONS WINS IN THE SEVENTH

The Daily is not of the number of those who believe that the election of a democrat as congressman from the Seventh Alabama district had any connection with the league of nations, despite the fact that this issue was injected into the campaign by the republicans. However, as the triumph of Kennamar would have been hailed the nation over as a triumph for Reed-ism and as a blow at the peace pact, it would not be out of order to claim that the South, through the stalwart voters of the Seventh, had gone on record as strongly favoring ratification. The fact is, the republicans oppose the league of nations because it emanated from a high democratic source, and not because of its provisions, with which perhaps half the voters of the Seventh were unfamiliar.

It is quite possible that the efforts of the Republicans to influence sentiment in the Seventh by a broadcast distribution of the Reed speeches was really an alert move to throw disloyal votes from Rainey to his opponents. No doubt it was expected that the heavy German vote could be thus swung in line. That it was not a tribute to the common-sense and patriotism of those who, though born in the Fatherland, are now good American citizens.

An effort to make it appear that the South is out of sympathy with President Wilson must necessarily prove futile. The only test is when democrats oppose democrats in democratic districts. Vardeman and Hardwick have already found out how the President and the league of nations stand in Dixie.

STATE PRESSGUARDING AGAINST INFLUENZA

There are two features of influenza to which not enough attention has been paid heretofore. One is that there are many paths. Beside the breathing organs through which the germs may be transmitted from person to person. Soiled hands, common drinking cups, improperly cleaned eating and drinking utensils in restaurants and soda fountains, roller towels and infected food must be guarded against.

Unusual prevalence of what may be regarded as "colds" should arouse suspicion. The "cold" may be a mild type of influenza. As these mild epidemics are often the starting point of more severe cases, the advice to report them should be heeded.—Huntsville Mercury.

Necks Taboo Dur Sand-Flea Invasion

(International News Service.)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 1.—The high cost of living was just as much a problem in Elizabethan times as it is today. The Rev. William Harrison, a quaint gossip as a chronicler, complained that magistrates in his day winked at merchants who charged more for commodities than they were permitted by law to charge. Is that day, as in this, "beggars"—this delightfully descriptive word is of the dominion's own coinage—were allowed "to turn up corn and raise the price of it; to carry it home unsold, or to a distant market, if they want more money than the buyer likes to pay; nay, they leave to export it for the benefit of enemies abroad, so as to make more profit."

FOIL IN BABY'S MOUTH CAUSES DEATH

(International News Service.)
EL DORADO, Kan., Oct. 1.—Robert, the seventeen-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wright, died very suddenly at their home, following a short visit to the city park. The couple went to the park early in the evening and Robert, while playing in the grass, found some tin foil. Baby Robert put it in his mouth. His mother noticed it, and took it away from him.

In a few minutes he became violently ill and died an hour later. It is believed the tin foil contained poison.

Birds and Flowers.
It has been estimated that there are 2,000 varieties of wild flowers growing in the Rocky Mountain National park, and more than 1,000 species of birds building their homes in the firs, aspens, spruces and willows of that section. Even the tiny hummingbird and the forget-me-nots find life easy on the summit of Pike's peak. Some of the other flowers are the fringed gentians, columbines, buttercups and daisies and delicate pink.

Few Large Rubies Known.

Unlike the diamond and emerald, rubies of large size are exceedingly rare, but mention has been made of a few in the works of Marco Polo, Mandeville and other travelers in the Orient, which may be believed or not by present-day readers as the great gems to which they refer have all been lost to sight for centuries, unless they are stored away among the secret treasures of Persia, Burma or China.

Slavery.

The Portuguese were the first to put negroes in the interior of Africa as slaves in the colonies. The shipment of negroes to the New World took place in 1502, when the Portuguese landed some in Santo Domingo. From that time to the nineteenth century traffic in negroes across Atlantic was carried on.

AD TERRIBLE SKIN DISEASE

A Girl Improves Rapidly When Given ZIRON Iron Tonic.

Many mothers try one remedy after another, for the sufferings of their little ones, without apparently being able to find the right one. If anything seems wrong with blood, or stomach, or if the child's system is run-down and needs strengthening, you may benefit by the experience of a Westmoreland, Tenn., mother, Mrs. J. F. Angles, who writes:

"My little girl had a terrible skin disease and her stomach was in such a bad condition. Nothing helped her, so we finally decided to give her Ziron.

She improved so rapidly from the first bottle, so we have given her two more. It is much better."

Don't try other remedies first! Choose ZIRON from the start. It has benefited many people suffering from poor blood, general weakness, loss of appetite and other symptoms which indicate lack of iron in the blood.

Those Who Think There Is Anything New in Profitless Game Another Guess Coming.

The high cost of living was just as much a problem in Elizabethan times as it is today. The Rev. William Harrison, a quaint gossip as a chronicler, complained that magistrates in his day winked at merchants who charged more for commodities than they were permitted by law to charge. Is that day, as in this, "beggars"—this delightfully descriptive word is of the dominion's own coinage—were allowed "to turn up corn and raise the price of it; to carry it home unsold, or to a distant market, if they want more money than the buyer likes to pay; nay, they leave to export it for the benefit of enemies abroad, so as to make more profit."

During the world war there was much talk of certain Americans who deliberately destroyed carloads of potatoes, cabbages and other vegetables and foodstuffs in order to raise the prices of these commodities. Same old story. There's nothing new, remarks F. N. H. in Rochester Post-Express.

Again, to hark back to good Canon Harrison, "pestiferous purveyors buy up eggs, chickens, bacon, etc.; butter men travel about and buy up butter at farmers' houses, and have raised its price from 18d to 40d a gallon. These things are ill for the buyer and the poor man, and should not be allowed."

After all about the only thing that is true is that there is no new thing under the sun. Like the poor, the profiteer is always with us.

TAX EXPERTS LOSING SLEEP

Question, "When Is a Girl a Miss?" Is Puzzling Bureau of Internal Revenue.

The other day Lew Hahn, executive secretary of the National Retail Dry Goods association, took the joy out of life for the experts of the bureau of internal revenue when he asked whether corsets were underwear. Now he has gone and done it again, the query this time being:

"When does a girl become a miss?"

Framers of the new revenue tax law included in the list of taxable "women's and misses' wearing apparel." Experts of the bureau, Mr. Hahn says, have informed retailers that no tax is to be collected on wearing apparel for girls.

Retailers say there are hundreds and hundreds of misses, and quite a few married women, who are so petite that they can still wear, and therefore buy, girls' clothes. Does the fact that such articles of clothing are to be worn by women of mature years change the nature of the apparel in the eyes of the law; or do garments designed for girls remain girls' wear, regardless of the age of those who buy and wear them? This is the puzzle Mr. Hahn has put up to the bureau experts.

A Waiting Game.

"Suppose you wait here in this comfortable seat while I match these two samples of ribbon," said Mrs. Simson sweetly to her husband, who had been entrapped into going shopping with her.

When she came back she said contentedly: "Have I kept you waiting an unpardonable long time, you poor dear?"

"Oh, I haven't minded it," he said cheerfully. "I just jumped on a car and ran up to the football match, and then I took a little spin in Jack Dance's new car. Did you match the samples?"

"One of them. It's so provoking, I shall have to come in again tomorrow, for they are just closing the shop."—London Ideas.

Tubs May Strike Next.

Add to the strikes for higher wages that of negro washerwomen of Louisville.

Aunt Katie (last name not known even to patrons) was asked the other day if she could do a washing the next day.

"Deed no, chile," was the reply. "An' any more washings I do is goin' to cost yuh ten cents moah," she added.

Pressed for an explanation, Aunt Katie said that she and "several other washer ladies are goin' on a picnic to-day and won't do no washin' for no-buddy."

"Furdemoah, dis ten cents moah goes all the time now. De street car men is gonna git moah dan dat fer strikin', and so is us," was her explanation.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 1.—Nothing is to interfere with the world's series in Cincinnati, not even the food investigation cases. Some visiting judges, Judge Bernard C. Fox if "such and such" a case could not be put down for trial on October 6.

"Er, ah let me see," stammered the Judge.

"No, indeed," snapped opposing counsel. "I know what the court is thinking about, for I am thinking about the same thing. The world's series will be on then."

Court will adjourn at 12:30 each day the teams play in Redland.

CO-OPERATE IN SEARCH FOR GIRL'S SLAYER—FIND LOVE

(International News Service.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Even within the cheerless walls of a police station Cupid may reign.

Detective Henry F. Schneider, who has made a name for himself by running down criminals, and Katherine Hyde, a copette, were assigned to bring to justice the unknown murderer of a little girl. Some days ago the degraded individual they had dragged from New York's underworld went to prison for life.

Now Mr. and Mrs. Schneider are en route to Niagara Falls on their honeymoon. While working together on the case they fell in love, became engaged and hastened to the nuptial altar soon after society had been relieved of their quarry.

Dallas Patrons Object To Advertising Slides

The Moving Picture World says: Dallas movie fans are starting a petition which they will send to the managers of several theatres which go strong in displaying advertisements between reels. The petition is for the benefit of several moving picture shows as well as Louisville houses.

Fans say that they have no objection to learning through screen advertisements what is coming to the playhouse during the next week, but they object to having to twiddle their thumbs while stale and musty slides advertising Old Doc Sapshead's Hair Tonic and other similar delicacies are flashed before them day after day, week after week ad infinitum. They have decided it as a waste of time, and will patronize advertisement-free shows unless it is discontinued.

The matter has been taken up by the dramatic critics of local newspapers, who are unanimously opposed to overdoing this kind of advertising.

Our Free Service Checks Your Truck Costs

WE will study your trucks, loads and routes to ascertain which type of Goodyear Truck Tire will serve you at the lowest cost per mile.

The selection of the right type and size of truck tire frequently means substantial reductions in tire costs and therefore in truck repair bills.

Then we will submit a report containing our tire-equipment recommendations and detailing various steps of the money-saving attention which we are prepared to give to your tires and trucks while tires are being applied and after. For example, it will explain how we inspect tires regularly and report on their condition, suggesting any treatment needed by injuries such as cuts, cracks and bruises. These, if neglected, develop quickly and frequently result in the failure of other-wise sound tires.

The submitting of this report will help you to find and stop leaks in your cartage account. It involves no obligation. Remember our facilities: a big hydraulic press, a well-equipped work-shop and plenty of parking space. Night service by appointment.

GIRLS TOOK KISS REFUSED BY MEN

By EDWARD C. STRETT,
International News Staff Correspondent.

ROME, Oct. 1.—The medal of valor has been awarded eleven young fishermen of Pesaro, a storm-swept port on the Adriatic, for risking their lives to save the officers and crew of the gunboat Fan di Bruno from drowning when the vessel was wrecked during a gale.

With the Alfredo Cappellini, the Fan di Bruno was en route to Caporetto when she ran into a severe storm a few miles off Pesaro. The Alfredo Cappellini, battered to pieces by mountainous seas, went down within plain view of the coast; the Fan di Bruno was washed onto a series of jagged rocks after her engines had been disabled by seas washing into her boiler room.

Food Supplies Ruined

For two days the storm continued with unabated fury and finally what little food remained aboard the gunboat was ruined by salt water. In desperation the crew signalled to the fishermen on the shore for help. Those who thundered on the coast momentarily and the old seamen agreed that to would mean certain death for a small boat to attempt to rescue. Apparently the men, 101 of them, were abandoned.

A number of girls, the wives and daughters of the fishermen, however, read the distress signals and determined to risk everything to save the shipwrecked sailors. Before the sea on shore could stop them ten young women, led by Emma Simoncelli, launched a whale boat in the roaring billows.

Death Before Dishonor

After working tirelessly for hours they reached the side of the gunboat and made fast. Food was passed up to the men and Miss Simoncelli herself went aboard to distribute it.

While the girl was aboard ship her companions' boat was washed clear of the vessel and there was nothing to do but pull for shore again, leaving Miss Simoncelli stranded aboard. Undaunted, the girl continued to serve food to the stricken men and then, as dusk settled, she jumped into the seething waters and actually managed to swim ashore, preferring to take her chances in the sea before laying herself open to criticism by remaining on the vessel over night without proper chaperonage.

Eventually the entire crew of the Fan di Bruno was rescued and the heroism of the young women was brought to the attention of the King. The King wrote each of the heroines a personal letter, thanking them for their services, and the King bestowed upon each the medal of valor. The decorations were conferred on the beach at Pesaro, with full military ceremonies. Crews from several Italian naval vessels attended and cheered the girls lustily as they blushingly permitted the admiral to pin the decorations on their breasts.

STOLE TO PURCHASE NEW WOODEN LEG—GETS 2 YRS.

(International News Service.)
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 1.—"Why did you steal this metal?" the court inquired.

"Well, Your Honor, I was suffering from a bad wooden leg and"

"But why did you steal it?" interrupted His Honor.

"I wanted to buy me a new wooden leg."

Circuit Judge McElhinney, of Clayton, was questioning Sherman Holman, of Carterville, Ill. The prisoner pleaded guilty to stealing eighty pounds of a rare metal used in hardening steel.

"I'll give you two years at Jefferson City to think it over," said the Judge.

AT 92 HE IS FATHER OF A BOUNCING BOY

(International News Service.)
NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Ezra Holloway, ninety-two years old, a Hudson River barge captain, is a father again.

The aged boatman beamed with pride when a nurse came from his wife's room in the Bellevue Hospital, here and announced: "It's a boy, and a beautiful baby, too."

This is Captain Holloway's six-month child, all of whom are living. Mrs. Holloway, who is forty-one years old, is his third wife. She has five children by a previous marriage, so that in reality Captain Holloway is the father of twenty-one children.

Levine said he belonged to a sect of followers of Tolstoy who advocated a back-to-nature movement. "THE TRAIL OF THE LONESOME PINE"

Will be Presented at the Masonic Friday Night, Oct. 3.

As rapid development is demanded in the modern play, Eugene Walter has Fate and Fortune lay heavy upon the hero in his dramatization of John Fox, Jr.'s widely read story, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine." Hale's partner warns him against falling in love with the mountain girl; he is told his friends will not receive her and that her kinsfolk will drive him from the country, perhaps kill him if he breaks June's heart.

There are a lot of comedy touches to enlighten June's particular scenes in the play. June flashes for a moment as a modern well-gowned woman, and the next moment she discards her attire and flies to the mountain cabin in her homespun. Jane Ware portrays June as one of the most lovable stage characters ever written. The play comes to the Masonic theatre Friday, Oct. 3.

SOMETHING ABOUT "ALMOST MARRIED"

"Almost Married," which comes to the Delite theatre on Thursday, is an irresistible combination of love and laughter in which May Allison, the golden girl of the screen, is seen at her adorable best. The play tells the romance of a girl who leaves her Alpine home to come to America and win fame and fortune with her voice. Before she left the mountains, however, she met and fell in love with a young millionaire who, though loving her, badly deserted her. On becoming the leading favorite in a famous New York review she meets the father of the young man and between them they concoct a plan which brings the delinquent youth to his knees. The complications which ensue make a play of rare originality replete with incidents of love, adventure and humor that gives the radiant star unlimited scope for her inimitable talents.

Popular Paramount Star Has Fine Role in "The Law of the North."

Charles Ray, the celebrated star in Paramount pictures, will be seen at the Delite theatre today, in his new photoplay, "The Law of the North," written by Ella Stuart Carson and produced by Irvin W. Willat under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince, which is its own trademark of excellence. In this absorbing photoplay, Mr. Ray portrays the role of Alain de Montclair, a strong man of the North, known as the "Eagle." The scenes of the story are laid in and about a trading post at the top of the world, amid the white silence, peopled only by wild beasts, Indians and trappers. Alain is the son of the commandante of the post and when his father is murdered by Alain's best friend, many interesting developments ensue, not the least of which are a pursuit of the assassin over the snow on sledges, a pitched battle at an abandoned fort, the death of the murderer at the fangs of wolves and the espousing of the daughter of the man who has caused all the trouble.

Mr. Ray is finely supported in this strong picture by picked screen players, chief among them being Doris Lee, Robert McKim, Gloria Hope, Charles French and Manuel Ojeda.

INFLUENZA COMING BACK
THIS FALL. DOCTORS SAY

(International News Service.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Physicians and health authorities throughout the country are feverishly preparing to combat Spanish influenza. It is predicted, will return this Fall and Winter with more virulence than ever. Experiments with several kinds of serum and vaccine have failed to develop a single one which will effectively insure the public against the ravages of the dreaded disease. Another epidemic, the doctors say, must be fought with the same medicines used last year, but a little precaution used before the situation arrives will save thousands of lives.

Harvard University Medical School has announced the discovery of an efficacious serum, and requests have come from the entire country for full particulars. New York health officers, however, are frankly dubious.

Here, say physicians, are the best-known weapons with which to fight "flu" bugs:

1. Isolate every case of influenza.
2. Thoroughly wash all cooking and eating utensils used by patient.
3. Wash face and hands thoroughly, especially after leaving sick room.
4. Begin—NOW—to build up your system by frequent bathing, healthy exercise and plenty of outdoor life, so that the body will have more power to resist infection.

EVEN HOUSE OF COMMONS
INFESTED BY PROFITEERS

(International News Service.)
LONDON, Oct. 1.—The probing of profiteers begins at home so far as one member of the House of Commons is concerned. While other members shouted the shame of the country profiteers this member took four of the certified "one penny" butter pats from the House of Commons dining room, weighed them on a delicate chemist's scale, and found he had been buying butter at the rate of $4.75 a pound.

The member wants something done about it, but the kitchen committee seems inclined to "stand pat" and let him go right on muck-raking.

WILD DUCKS FLY SOUTH.
SEVERE WINTER PREDICTED

OAKLEY, Kan., Oct. 1.—Wild ducks have the weather prophets of Kansas guessing. They cannot fathom the actions of the wild game birds that since about August 1 have been seen flying South.

Ordinarily the wild ducks and geese do not fly South until the cold weather forces them to, but this year they have been seen flying South on very warm days. Among the ducks were many mallards.

Opinions as to the cause is divided. Some say the drought in the Northwest is the cause, while others predict an early and severe winter.

Now Big Car Owners

In It They Find Wanted Large Car Qualities,
With Advantages Exclusive to Small Cars

Turn to Essex

Consider how many, who formerly bought only large, high-priced cars, now own an Essex.

It proves that size was not what they sought. They paid big premiums for qualities that small cars did not offer.

These are people with wide motor experience. They prize such light car advantages as economy and nimbleness.

But heretofore, only large, costly cars met their other requirements of performance, riding ease and appearance.

Now They Buy
the Essex

And they are chief among Essex enthusiasts. It meets their demands for a complete car. Accustomed to fine car qualities, they appreciate the way in which Essex matches the best standards of cars in higher price ranges.

The Essex was designed to embody the wanted qualities of the finest cars, in a size it would be possible to build at a moderate price.

Such Is the Car
You Want

Everywhere you hear how Essex meets those exactions. Consider just what all this comment and praise of Essex means. Surely no other car ever excited such unrestrained enthusiasm.

And note this fact. Except in size and economy you have probably never heard the Essex compared to another small car. Men inevitably seek comparison for Essex qualities among high-priced cars. There only, do they find parallels by which to describe it.

They match its acceleration against certain makes noted for that quality. Its speed they compare to the swiftest. Every community has its story of how the Essex "in high," tops some local "bogey" hill.

And now that it has become so well known, men are making it the performance standard. It is not unusual to hear some say of a high-priced car they admire: "Why it climbs like an Essex," or "It gets away at crossings with the Essex cars."

Examine the Essex
Ride in It.

Your first glance will note the distinctive finish, the materials and workmanship. See the car even in the smallest details.

Its solid, compact assembly, that has been proved in every trying test, will satisfy you of endurance powers.

Then take a ride in the Essex. It will reveal qualities that charm you as they have nearly a million others.

You will agree that only big production permits the sale of such a car at the Essex price. Though they are being built at the rate of 20,000 a year, the demand exceeds supply.

You can be sure of an Essex when you want it only by placing your order now.

Life
Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes:
"From the time I entered into womanhood . . . I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. . . Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, . . . I decided to

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain. . .

"It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. . . I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."

If you suffer pain caused from womanly trouble, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to build up your run-down system, take the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Cardui. It helped her. We believe it will help you.

You Can't Cure Rheumatism With Liniments and Lotions

If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, why waste time with liniments, lotions and other local applications that never did cure Rheumatism, and never will? Do not try to rub the pain away, for you never will succeed. Try the sensible plan of finding the cause of the pain. Remove the cause, and there can be no pain. You will never be rid of Rheumatism until you cleanse your blood of the germs that cause the disease. S. S. S. has no equal as a blood cleanser, scores of sufferers say that it has cleansed their blood of Rheumatism, and removed all trace of the disease from their system. Get a bottle of S. S. S. at your drug store and get on the right treatment to-day. If you want special medical advice, address Medical Director, 49 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

PALMER ATTEMPTS THE SECOND TIME TO SLAY HIMSELF

J. M. Palmer, of 1425 Tusculum avenue, West End, Birmingham, who slashed his throat at the Decatur station yesterday afternoon and later made a second attempt to end his life while at the Decatur city hall, was taken to his home in the Magic City last night by a daughter who came here at the telegraphic request of Mayor Nelson.

Palmer started early morning restlessness Tuesday by leaning from a hotel window and yelling for the police. He had arrived earlier in the evening on a train from St. Louis and had a ticket to Birmingham. Palmer has given medical examination but it was believed he was not dangerous and he was allowed to resume his journey. At the Decatur station he slashed his throat and later at the city hall, where he had been taken for treatment, he is said to have borrowed a knife from a negro, and cut himself again in the throat and on the arms. He is expected to recover.

PLANS FOR BETTER CAMPAIGN WILL BE MADE OCTOBER 2

Plans for the campaign for the ratification of the $25,000,000 bond issue amendment by the people will be made at a meeting to be held in Montgomery October 2, according to a letter received today by Postmaster W. E. Crawford, of Decatur, who is a member of the Executive committee of the Alabama Highway Improvement Association.

Mr. Crawford was urged to attend the conference by F. J. Crumpton, president of the Association. The legislature, during his closing days, passed the measure authorizing his election on the bond issue, which will enable the state to take advantage of federal aid in building good roads all over Alabama. The election must be held within 90 days and probably will be held in December.

The advocates of good roads declare a warm campaign must be waged from now on until the day the ballots are cast in order to acquaint the public with the magnitude of the measure.

Co-eds Rout Air Mice With Tennis Rackets

(International News Service.) GREENCASTLE, Ind., Oct. 1.—Armed with tennis rackets, brooms and other weapons the sixty co-ed residents of Mansfield Hall, DePauw University, waged war on mice of the winged variety. After an hour's battle, during which the girls wore towels about their heads to prevent the bats from lodging in their hair, the entire neighborhood had been aroused from its slumbers and thirty-two bats had been put to sleep for all time.

The night fliers gained entrance to the dormitory through an open window in an unoccupied room.

NUXATED IRON

"Say, Doctor, This Prescription Works Like Magic."

Physician Says Nuxated Iron Quickly Puts Atoning Strength and Energy Into the Veins of Men and Brings Roses to the Cheeks of Nervous, Run-Down Women.

Ask the first hundred strong, healthy people you meet to what they owe their strength and see how many reply "Nuxated Iron." Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital, says: "Thousands of people suffer from iron deficiency but do not know what to take. There is nothing like organic iron—Nuxated Iron, to enrich the blood, make beautiful, healthy women, and strong, vigorous iron men. To make absolutely sure that my patients get real organic iron and not some form of the metallic variety, I always prescribe Nuxated Iron in its original packages. Nuxated Iron will increase the strength and endurance of weak, nervous, run-down folks in two weeks' time in many instances."

MANUFACTURER'S NOTE: Nuxated Iron recommended above by Dr. Sullivan can be obtained from any good druggist with or without a physician's prescription on an absolute manufacturer's guarantee of success or money refunded.
